the run to Pueblo, Colo.

It was a jolly crowd that stood on the platforms and waved an equally jolly good-by to Salt Lake.

"You're a good bunch, you people in this town," said one. And, as the conductor gave the signal and he swung on, the shout echoed, "and I am coming back some day on my own hook."

Yesterday they dropped their business, passed up veins of ore, concentrators, smelters and the like and devoted themselves to having just a jolly good time. They cast care to the winds. Some went to the fair grounds. winds. Some went to the fair grounds, but the major portion hied themselves to Great Salt Lake, and such was their spirit that nothing would do until they tested the water.

"Come on in, boys, the water's fine," was the general cry, and two score took the plunge.

Others indulged in the complexity of the men who seek the assistance of the Volunteers.

Others indulged in the more subdued astime of viewing the city sights, and all were delighted. Their next stop is at Pueblo, where the great plant of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company will be inspected. Cripple Creek will come in for a visit, and then back to Broadway direct.

Bad Breath From Stomach and Catarrh

Many Persons Are Victims of This Disagreeable Complaint.

It is quite common to hear of persons being spoken of as thoroughly agreeable companions, highly entertaining in conversation, fascinating and attractive in manner, gifted well-read, accomplished and possessing all the attributes and qualifications necessary to make them desirable guests at parties and entertainments, but for the single fact that, for some cause or other, such as stomach trouble, decay of teeth, or throat and nasal catarrh, they are the unfortunate possessors of bad breath.
